

I am horrified at the uneven coverage of the election by some of the public media. Fox news is bad enough. Sinclair Broadcasting should not be allowed to air anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. The FCC must keep the airwaves public for democracy to work. The information presented to Americans can not be determined solely by corporate America.